

It Takes All of Us

New Mexico faces an unprecedented public health crisis as extreme heat is projected to break temperature records again this summer.

Summit Highlights

- 300 people registered
- 200 attendees
- 56 people received up to 3.5 CE credits
- 40 new members of Healthy Climate NM

Session Recordings

Heat Resources

Presenters' Slides

Main Sessions

Heat and Health Impacts in New Mexico

Understanding the Impact of Heat on Health
& Equity: Substance Use
Disorder as a Probe

Solutions to Reduce Heat-related Health
Harms: The Individual to the Systemic

Advocacy and Action

Breakout Sessions

COMMUNITY-BASED + WORKPLACE SETTINGS

NATIVE AMERICAN COMMUNITIES

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH +
SOCIAL SERVICES

OUTPATIENT SETTINGS

HOSPITALS +
EMS

Thank You Sponsors

American Federation of Teachers NM, American Red Cross, Anchorum Health Foundation, CHRISTUS St. Vincent, Community Foundation of Southern NM, Con Alma Health Foundation, Conservation Voters NM Education Fund, DoGood LLC, Health Equity Council, Luna Community College, McCune Foundation, National Education Association NM, NM Foundation, NM Voices for Children, PIRE-Southwest, Presbyterian Healthcare Services, UNM College of Population Health